CATHEDRAL OF THE ASSUMPTION NEWSLETTER

5TH. SUNDAY OF EASTER

Vol. 20. No. 26

22nd. May 2011

REFLECTION

One night a man had a dream
He dreamt that he was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Across the sky flashed the scenes of his life.
For each scene he noticed
not one but two sets of footprints in the sand.
He understood immediately that one belonged to him,
and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him,
he looked back at the footprints in the sand.
He noticed a curious thing.
He noticed that many times along the path of his life
there was only one set of footprints.
He also noticed that this happened
at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This bothered him greatly
so he asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you would walk with me all the way.
But I've noticed that during the most difficult times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. "I don't understand why in times when I needed you most you left me on my own."

Then the Lord replied:
"My dear friend, I love you, and would never leave you alone.
During your trials and sufferings, when you see only one set of footprints, those footprints are mine.
It was then that I carried you".
