MERCY SISTERS

Bishop Denis Nulty, will unveil a plaque at the Mercy convent gate on Dublin Road at 1pm on November 4th 2018 with representatives of the Mercy order from Carlow and Pittsburgh. In St Leo's College, speakers will outline the background to the 1843 journey of seven Carlow nuns to Pittsburgh and the work of the sisters in the United States including the founding of Mercy Hospitals, schools and Carlow University as well as further convents. All are welcome.

The Journey Concert: in St Clare's Church, Graiguecullen on Sunday 4th. November at 7.30pm Admission: FREE:- To mark the amazing journey of 7 Mercy Sisters who left Carlow 1843 to travel to America where they set up numerous convents, schools, orphanages and hospitals, we are putting on a concert in St Clare's Church, Graiguecullen on Sunday, November 4th at 7.30pm. Fr Liam Lawton, Hollywood actor Patrick Bergin and local singer songwriter Justin Kelly will all perform on the night. It promises to be a very special occasion.

All are welcome and admission to the concert is free.

WE REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS THOSE WHO HAVE DIED RECENTLY

Tom Neville, Oak Park, Carlow.

James Downey, 174 New Oak Estate, Carlow.

May they rest in peace.

Our sympathy to the family and to all who mourn.

Sunday School

A Sunday School for children ages 6-8 years of age has been running for the last three weeks in the Parish Centre during the 11am Mass. Children are dropped off to the Parish Centre before Mass begins and are returned to the Cathedral during Mass.

It has been a great success, the children enjoy being brought through the Gospel of the day, given the opportunity to ask questions and share how they feel and then take part in an arts and crafts activity. The Sunday School starts and concludes with prayer, and gives the children the opportunity to pray about what is important in their lives.

Newcomers are welcome to attend next Sunday at 11.

REMINDER: Clocks go back this weekend!!!!!!

DEACON'S MASS - Bishop Denis will celebrate Mass in Carlow Cathedral this Sunday the 28th October at 12.30pm to mark the 5th Anniversary of the Ordination to the Diaconate of our seven permanent deacons and the introduction of the permanent diaconate to the Diocese. The Diaconate is an ordained ministry which is rooted in scripture and is open to single and married men. Permanent deacons complement the contribution and work of our priests, religious and lay ministers and are therefore a source of support to us all. Please continue to pray for vocations to ordained life - the priesthood, diaconate and religious orders. Those discerning their calling need our support and encouragement.
